The 166 was the replacement for the Alfa Romeo 164, and although the 164 had styling which was far from orthodox, the 166 with its drooping headlamps and pointed nose still raised many eyebrows. The styling was very much in keeping with Alfa's corporate style of the time, which had begun with the smaller 156 model.

The new Alfa Romeo 166 complements these successful features with interior and exterior aesthetic motifs of great visual impact. The interior trim and exterior colour matches are also very sophisticated. The car's imposing front end has been fully redesigned and now resembles its smaller brother - the Alfa Romeo 156. The tall shield, for example, now forms the traditional Alfa three-part motif in conjunction with the two side air intakes.
